2. The disconnection of infidelity

3. The disconnection of interference

WHAT WE NEED WHEN WE'RE DISCONNECTED

1. We need companionship.

2. We need compassion.

3. We need courage.

4. We need Christ.

Life is one long experience of disconnection.

PROBABLE ENCOUNTERS WITH DISEASE

When Adam and Eve sinned, sickness became a grim reality. Death became unavoidable.

Disease: any condition that causes pain, dysfunction, distress, social problems, or death

PRIMARY EXAMPLES OF DISEASE

Paul	Job	Lazarus	The woman with the issue of blood
Naaman	David	Asa	Jehoram	People of Galilee
Epaphroditus	Dorcas

PAINFUL EMOTIONS OF DISEASE

1. The prayer
Tears and prayer—that's always an understandable response to disease.
2. The prescription
Medicine and doctors have a part in healing.
3. The problem
God's perfect will for us may not exempt us from illness, but He knows how to turn all things for what's best for us.

PRACTICAL ENCOURAGEMENTS OF DISEASE

1. Control your mind.
Don't let temporal illness steal your eternal peace.
2. Count your blessings.
The Lord can teach us many lessons in illness that could never be learned in health.
3. Continue your work.
Going through a rough patch often equips us for further service, and sometimes it allows us to empathize and minister to people who otherwise would never have crossed our paths or been touched by our lives.

THE FACT OF DEATH

Psalm 116:15

THE FACES OF DEATH

1. Physical death

In physical death the spirit and soul leave the body and move either into the presence of God or to isolation from God.

2. Spiritual death

Spiritual death is the separation of the natural man from God.

3. Second death

The second death is the final banishment from God and the final misery of the wicked in hell following the great white throne judgment at the end of the millennium.

If you have been born only once, you will have to die twice. But if you have been born twice, you will have to die only once.

THE FEAR OF DEATH

1. The prince of death has been defeated.

Because Christ died, we have lives that are forgiven. Because Christ arose, we have lives that are forever.

2. The power of death has been destroyed.

3. The process of death has been described.

4. The picture of death has been developed.

TRUTHS ABOUT DEATH FROM PSALM 23

1. Death is a journey, not a destination.

2. Death is a shadow, not a reality.

3. Death is lonely, but you're never alone.

You can face death with your faith if you will put your faith in Jesus Christ.

It's the lack of this discussion of the fear of God that contributes to the mess into which this world is rapidly descending.

The definition of the fear of God extends far beyond the emotion of awe.

TWO WAYS TO FEAR GOD

1. Awesome dread

2. Astonished devotion

God's greatness and majesty reduce us to an overpowering sense of awe that is not focused only on His wrath and judgment but on His transcendent glory.

WHY WE SHOULD FEAR GOD

1. Because of who He is

The very nature of God—His unequaled majesty, His unparalleled magnificence, His unmeasured beauty—should cause us to fear Him.

2. Because of what He has done

Perhaps the most spectacular demonstration of God's work in the past is creation itself.

3. Because of what He is doing

Every breath we take is a precious gift of God's sustaining grace. And for that sustenance God deserves our fear—our never-ending devotion.

PROMISES FOR THOSE WHO FEAR GOD

1. The promise of provision

2. The promise of protection

3. The promise of purity

4. The promise of prosperity

5. The promise of prolonged days
