God's names are designed to give us clues into His nature.

Hallowed means set apart, unique, or sacred.

God wants His name to be held in the unique position that it ought to occupy in our lives and in our world.

God's name is powerful; His name is tremendous because His name and names are transforming.

Elohim: The Creator God

Elohim is transcendent—distinct from His creation; is responsible for time; exists outside space and matter; is a person; and interacts with time and space.

El means Strong One.

We discover this great God in His creative genius.

God has to bring order out of chaos.

We've been created in the image of God. We've been designed to mirror Him.

God has built in what He's going to do for us tomorrow by what He creates today.

Elohim is unique in His being and in His person.

God rested because He was finished.

There is a rest that belongs to the people of God.

The powerful God, Elohim, is big enough for whatever is taking place in your life.

Jehovah: The Relational God

The reason Jehovah—Yahweh—is such a sacred name is because it is the name He gave Himself.

Jehovah is the name God uses when He wants to reveal Himself to you. He wants to get closer to you in a relationship.

I AM

1. Self-sufficiency: God has no need to go outside Himself for anything.

- 2. Self-existent: God is because He is.
- 3. Eternality: God has no past, and He has no future. He lives in perpetuity of the present tense.

God does not change (see Heb. 13:8).

4. Personal 5. Self-defined

God combines the names Yahweh and Elohim because you can't get God's power until you have God's relationship.

Adonai: The God Who Rules

Adonai refers to the Master or the Ruler, the One who is in charge.

Elohim is the power, Jehovah is the relationship, and Adonai is positioning yourself under Jehovah so that you can experience Elohim. It is yielding to God as Master.

God wants us to fully submit to who He is.

Jehovah Nissi: The LORD My Banner

Jehovah Nissi means the LORD My Banner.

The name Jehovah Nissi will teach you how to fight your battle.

If you spend more focus on the things you're fighting than the God you're appealing to, don't be surprised that the battle doesn't go in your direction.

You need some brothers and sisters to hold you up when you're too tired to fight on your own.

If you want to deal with the visible and physical, you must address the invisible and spiritual.

God says, "I want you to transfer the battles on earth to the God in heaven because the God in heaven is bigger than whomever you are fighting on earth."

If you go under the right banner, the victory has already been decided.

Jehovah Tsaba: The LORD Our Warrior

A giant is anything in your life that looms so large that it controls your emotions.

Knowing there was no divine protection on Goliath's side changed David's perspective.

If you can get your eyes on God, even though you can't miss the giant, it changes everything.

The LORD's army is a host of heaven coming to your aid.

Jehovah Rohi: The LORD My Shepherd

If the LORD is your Shepherd, He can meet your spiritual needs, your directional needs, and your emotional needs.

Because I have power over the enemy and grace even in light of my mistakes, I am not going to be afraid even when I'm in the valley.

If you see only what's troubling you and not the God who is bigger than what's troubling you, then you will be controlled by fear.

If the LORD is your Shepherd, He can meet your physical needs and your eternal needs.

Jehovah Jireh: The LORD Our Provider

Sometimes when God wants to show you His name and His ability to provide, He will put you in a situation that doesn't make sense.

God will often test our love for Him by calling for our Isaac.

When you want to know a new name for God, God wants to see whether you will complete your obedience.

Jireh means to see.

When God sees you choose Him, He makes the provision for you because He sees your complete commitment to Him.

God will make a promise waiting on you. When you've fulfilled your commitment, He will fulfill the oath that is bringing the promise to pass.

Don't delay what God wants to do by wavering in your commitment.

El Elyon: The Most High God

El Elyon is the Most High God who sits above your situation and who has the power to overrule what your situation is dictating to you.

There's a name for God that can overrule what the Enemy has taken away.

Until God gives the final word, you've not heard the last word.

If you want to see God rule, you don't compromise with the Enemy.

God doesn't want you to cut a deal with the Devil—that is, those forces that are outside the will of God—because it looks more profitable, it looks safer, it looks as if it's going to work out.

You want to hear what the God Most High has to say because until heaven rules, you have actually not heard the final decision.

The tithe comes from the recognition that I have only one source, and that source is my God.

El Shaddai: God Almighty

Many of us have created detours in our lives by going out on our own, independently of God, creating a mess that elongates our wait on His miracle.

At the core of this concept of El Shaddai is not only God's ability to deliver you but God's ability to nourish you until deliverance comes.

Your mistakes don't have to cancel out His power, because He is the God who can come through.

If you dwell under the umbrella, under the shelter, under the covering of the Most High, He will keep you along because you're in the wings of El Shaddai.
