Subject: ClearCommand® Product Line – Discontinuation

Early 2020, MSA was informed by a primary supplier in the manufacturing of the ClearCommand® Product line of the discontinuation of certain key components. As a result, MSA began the process of discontinuing all ClearCommand® product lines. MSA made a “last-time” purchase on high demand stocked parts.

Three years later, many parts are already depleted from the stock and are now obsolete. Some parts are still available until stock depletion. Once these parts will also be depleted from stock, MSA will no longer be able to sell, support or service the units, and the parts will become obsolete.

ClearCommand® Part numbers ordered on 2020 “last-time” purchase and the remaining stock for each of them at the date of this notice.
