

APPLICATION NOTE

LPG Bullet Tanks

At LPG plants, the danger of gas clouds collecting and migrating along the ground is very high.

Installed underneath the LPG Bullet Tanks are Model IR400 or S4000CH combustible gas detectors to monitor any gas leakage in and around the hazardous areas. Model IR5500 open path infrared gas detectors are also used to monitor the perimeter lines and LPG storage tanks.

