APPENDIX: Matthew 5–7 ...................................................... 138
MATTHEW 5:1-2

1 Seeing the crowds, he went up on the mountain,
   and when he sat down, his disciples came to him.
2 And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying: …

Why are there ____________________________?

Who is Jesus’ ____________________________ for the Sermon on the Mount?

Primary: _________________________________

Secondary: _______________________________
Why does Jesus ________________?

WHO

IS BLESSED?
Each week you will start your homework by reading through the entire Sermon on the Mount from start to finish. Then you’ll focus in on a particular passage to discover its message and how it fits into the greater context of the sermon as a whole. By the time you complete this study, you will have read the Sermon on the Mount at least nine times. As it grows more familiar to you, watch for how your understanding deepens and expands. Your first task each week will be to note how this process is taking place. To help you read for detail, you’ll be asked to mark certain words or phrases in the copy of Matthew 5–7 printed in the back of this book. Keep a set of colored pencils or markers handy as you read.

This week we’ll focus our study efforts on dissecting the eight short statements that form the opening to Jesus’ longest recorded message—statements commonly known as the Beatitudes. You may be familiar with some or all of them. We’ll strive to look at them with fresh eyes, asking ourselves why, of all the ways Jesus could have begun His inaugural address to His disciples, He begins with a list of “blesseds.”
DAY 1

Read Matthew 5:1–7:29 on pages 138-144.

As you read, circle each occurrence of the word “righteousness” with a blue pencil or marker. We will be considering its meaning and use on Day 3.

1. Which section of the sermon seems unclear to you?
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

2. Which section seems most straightforward?
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

3. Look up the word beatitude in the dictionary. Write the definition below:
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

4. Why do you think Jesus chooses to begin the Sermon on the Mount with a list of “blesseds”?
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
DAY 2

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

MATTHEW 5:3-4

1. Look up the following passages and note what each teaches us about being poor:

Psalm 40:16-17: ____________________________________________________________

Psalm 69:32-33: __________________________________________________________

Psalm 72:12-14: __________________________________________________________

Isaiah 66:2 (humble is translated “poor” in the KJV): _________________________

What kind of poverty is addressed in these verses? ____________________________

2. Webster’s Dictionary defines poverty as “the state of one with insufficient resources.” Based on this definition, what does it mean to be “poor in spirit”?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
3. What does Jesus say belongs to those who are poor in spirit?

In our video introduction in Week 1, we defined the kingdom of heaven as “the kingdom of grace here, and the kingdom of glory hereafter.” It’s the reign of God established at Christ’s first coming and consummated (completed) at His second coming. It’s the rule of God particularly over believers.

4. Why do you think Jesus says that the kingdom of heaven belongs to the “poor in spirit”?

5. Now look at the second Beatitude in Matthew 5:4. People can mourn for many reasons. What are some things that cause us to mourn?

6. Compare Joel 2:12-13 and James 4:7-10. What do we learn about the role of mourning in these passages?
7. In light of these passages and in light of the first Beatitude, what kind of mourning do you think Jesus is referring to when He says, “Blessed are those who mourn”?

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

8. How has recognizing your lack of spiritual resources been a blessing to you? What role has godly grief played in your repentance?

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

9. Give an example of a time each of these two blessings has operated in your life.

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

10. Rewrite (paraphrase) the first and second Beatitudes in your own words, getting as close to their intended meaning as you can.

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________
5 Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.
6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

MATTHEW 5:5-6

Webster’s Dictionary defines meek as “enduring injury with patience and without resentment.” A meek person is someone who is not occupied with self at all, someone who does not insist on a set of rights.

1. Read Isaiah 53. Based on this prophetic passage and on Webster’s definition of the word meek, how did Christ perfectly demonstrate meekness?

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

2. How would having a true estimate of ourselves in relation to God help us be meek?

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

3. What would the world say is a synonym for meek?

__________________________________________________________________________
4. How does the third Beatitude contrast with the world’s opinion of who will inherit the earth?

5. In what sense do you think the meek will inherit the earth?

6. If a meek person is someone who does not insist on a set of rights, how meek are you? What rights do you feel entitled to or take for granted in your home, church, workplace, or community?

7. How can a sense of entitlement stifle your relationship with God or skew your perception of God?

8. Now look at the fourth Beatitude in Matthew 5:6. On Day 1 you circled the word righteousness with a blue pencil or marker. How many times does it occur in the sermon?
9. Look up the word righteousness in the dictionary. Write the definition below.

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

10. Look up the following passages and answer the questions for each.

John 4:7-10:
Who is speaking? __________________________

What is offered? __________________________

What need is satisfied? __________________________

John 6:35:
Who is speaking? __________________________

What is offered? __________________________

What need is satisfied? __________________________

11. Read 1 Corinthians 1:26-31. According to verse 30, who is our righteousness?

__________________________________________________________________________

12. We hunger and thirst after many things besides righteousness. What are you hungering and thirsting for right now that cannot satisfy? List your thoughts below.

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________
13. In what ways are these things poor substitutes for Christ?

14. Rewrite (paraphrase) the third and fourth Beatitudes in your own words, getting as close to their intended meaning as you can.

DAY 4

7 Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy.
8 Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

MATTHEW 5:7-8

1. How would you define mercy? How does justice relate to mercy? Use a dictionary or thesaurus to help with your answer.

2. Read Matthew 7:1-2. What concept is presented in this later passage of the Sermon on the Mount that is also presented in the fifth Beatitude?
3. Why do you think how we treat others will affect how God treats us?

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

4. To whom do you have difficulty showing mercy? How could you adjust your perspective so that showing mercy to that person becomes easier?

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

5. Now look at the sixth Beatitude, Matthew 5:8. Think about what Jesus means by “pure in heart.” How would you respond to someone who defined “pure in heart” as sinless? Look up 1 John 1:8 to help with your answer.

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

6. If being pure in heart is not being perfect or free from sin, what is it?

__________________________________________________________________________

7. Why do you think the pure in heart will “see God”?

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________
9. In what specific areas of your life do you battle impurity of heart?

__________________________________________________________________________

10. How do these areas of sin cloud your ability to “see God”?

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

11. Rewrite (paraphrase) the fifth and sixth Beatitudes in your own words, getting as close to their intended meaning as you can.

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

DAY 5

9. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.

10. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

MATTHEW 5:9-10

1. Look up the word peacemaker in a dictionary and write the definition below. Note any synonyms you think would fit with the way Jesus uses the word “peacemaker” in the seventh Beatitude.

__________________________________________________________________________
2. Read Isaiah 9:6. Which of the titles given for Jesus relates to the seventh Beatitude?

__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

3. Read Galatians 4:4-7. Based on these verses and your answer to the previous question, why do you think the peacemakers will be called the “sons of God”?

__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

4. What are practical ways to be a practicing peacemaker? Think of specific ways we can use our speech and actions to be peacemakers, and note them below.

   In our home:

   In our church:

   In our community/workplace:

   In our country:

5. What is the contrast between the seventh and eighth Beatitudes? In other words, why would a peacemaker ever be the object of persecution?

__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

6. For what reason does the eighth Beatitude say persecution will occur?

   “for ___________________________ ________________”
7. Look back at Day 3, question 11. Who did we learn is our righteousness (see 1 Cor. 1:30)?

How does Matthew 5:11 confirm this connection?

8. Have you ever been persecuted “for righteousness’ sake”? Think about how the experience changed you. Did you feel “blessed”? Share your thoughts below.

9. Rewrite (paraphrase) the seventh and eighth Beatitudes in your own words, getting as close to their intended meaning as you can.

WRAP-UP

What impacted you most in this week’s passage from the Sermon on the Mount? How has Jesus challenged your concept of what it means to be “blessed”?

GROUP DISCUSSION

INTRODUCTORY QUESTION: Describe your most memorable encounter with someone who is famous and/or wealthy. How did you respond and why?

1. REFLECT: Based on your Day 2 study this week, why should we desire to be poor in spirit and mourn?

   APPLY: [Day 2, questions 8-9] How has recognizing your lack of spiritual resources been a blessing to you? What role has godly grief played in your repentance? Give an example of a time each of these two blessings has operated in your life.

2. REFLECT: [Day 3, question 1] Based on Isaiah 53, how did Christ perfectly demonstrate meekness?

   APPLY: [Day 3, questions 6-7] If a meek person is someone who does not insist on a set of rights, how meek are you? What rights do you feel entitled to or take for granted in your home, church, workplace, or community? How can a sense of entitlement stifle your relationship with God or skew your perception of God?

3. REFLECT: On Day 4 we learned about being merciful and pure in heart. How are these two blessed qualities related to each other? Can we be one without being the other?

   APPLY: [Day 4, question 4] To whom do you have difficulty showing mercy? How could you adjust your perspective so that showing mercy to that person becomes easier?

4. REFLECT: What is a peacemaker? How was Jesus a peacemaker?

   APPLY: [Day 5, question 4] What are practical ways to be a practicing peacemaker in your home, church, community/workplace, country?

WRAP-UP: What impacted you most in this week’s passage from the Sermon on the Mount? How has Jesus challenged your concept of what it means to be “blessed”?
Watch the teaching video for Week 2. Use the space below to take notes.

After the video concludes, close your study in prayer. Praise God for blessing those the world calls cursed. Ask God to help you walk toward Him in humility, meekness, repentance, and hunger for truth. Ask Him to help you walk toward others in mercy, purity, peace, and righteousness. Thank Him that He sent Jesus to become a curse for us, that we might be called blessed.
