

2020 Johnny Hunt Simulcast Breakouts

Gary Bates - The Deep Time Deception: The Age of the Earth and Why it Matters

Although many believers do not accept evolution, some think that the days of creation could be millions of years each or that there are gaps of deep time between Genesis 1:1 and 1:2. But most don't actually know where the idea of deep time comes from. Understanding this will highlight why adding millions of years to Scripture is actually a problem for the gospel. This session will be translated into Spanish and will be simulcast Friday night.

Bob Reccord - Beneath the Surface: What is there that will Make You or Break You?

Living in a day in which everything is judged by "how it looks" and the cosmetics of appeal, be it a person, a building, a product, or life, the question screams to be asked: Is that all there is? We will look at the man in Scripture who had it all...and lost it all. Why? Because he never took time to go back to the foundation, renovate the damage in his life, and rebuild. Let's learn from his missteps! This session will be translated into Spanish and will be simulcast Saturday morning.

Keith Boggs - Manhood Today

You were made by God and you were made for God and until you surrender to and buy into that, you will never be the man God has called you to be.

James Eubanks - Walls and Windows of the Heart

Secure home or prison? It depends on where the walls are placed. Access or vulnerability? It depends on who the windows are open to. Renovate your marriage, by tearing down the walls of division and opening the windows of connection with your wife.

Brian Jennings - Renovating Masculinity

The next generation is growing up in a gender-fluid, screen-obsessed world declaring that if there is such a thing as masculinity, it's toxic and outdated. In this breakout, we'll build a renovated masculinity on biblical foundations that is adapted for and able to withstand the cultural winds.

Johnny Hunt – Senior Pastor Breakout

Leadership Breakout for Senior Pastors led by Pastor Johnny.
