SESSION 1 | LOOKING BACK

• Welcome your group to 33, a journey into authentic manhood as modeled by Jesus during his 33 years on earth.

• Explain the importance of processing what will be learned with another man or group of men. Challenge every man to participate in a small group discussion after the session.

• Invite each man to turn to page 9 of his Training Guide and then play the session.

• Following the session share something that resonated with you, maybe a Strategic Move that you wrote down. Call attention to the space provided on page 13 to write down one Strategic Move in response to the session today.

• Dismiss them to their group discussion time. You and your volunteers may need to help some men find or form groups.

• Challenge the men to invite a friend to join them for the next session of 33. Explain that anyone can download the sessions of 33 anytime at authenticmanhood.com and stay in sync with the series.

• Strongly encourage the men to read the articles and features between each lesson in the Training Guide.

SESSION 2 | DAD

• Welcome the men back to 33. Make sure that all new participants have a Training Guide and encourage them to remain after the session for small group discussion.

• Share a short story about your relationship with your dad and share how he has either positively or negatively impacted your life.

• After viewing this session, remind the men of the importance of writing down a Strategic Move from each session. You could share what you wrote down to illustrate how it is done. Explain that they will be taking all of their Strategic Moves and synthesizing them into a personal Action Plan at the end of the series.

• Transition to the group discussion time and help any new participants find a group.

SESSION 3 | MOM

• Welcome your group. Reflect on something you gained from the previous session, or have one of the men in your group briefly share what he is learning, how his life is changing, and one of his Strategic Moves.

• Remind the men that any session they miss or wish to view again can be downloaded at authenticmanhood.com. Also, remind them to read the articles and features between each session in the Training Guide.

• After viewing the session, you may want to have someone share a short testimony about Mom’s impact.

• Remind the men to write down a Strategic Move then dismiss them to the group discussion time.

SESSION 4 | HEALING

• Welcome your group. Consider sharing how you were helped and challenged in the last session regarding Mom.

• After viewing the session on healing briefly share how this lesson has impacted you personally.

• Dismiss the men to their groups. Reminding them of the importance of reading articles and features in their Training Guide.

SESSION 5 | ALL-ALONE

• Welcome your group. You may want to invite a man from the group to briefly share how 33 The Series is benefiting him. Be sure and give him advance notice and a time frame of only 2-3 minutes. (Chances are, he’ll go 3-4 minutes! Remember shorter is better.)
• After viewing this session you may want to review the specific steps from the less they can take to connect with other men. Remind them to write down their strategic move.

• Dismiss the men to the group discussion time and encourage them to read the articles and features in the Training Guide.

SESSION 6 | HEART

• Welcome your group. Begin this session by calling attention to the Action Plan on page 119. Challenge them to consider how they might compile and synthesize all of their Strategic Moves into a concise and doable Action Plan.

• Share with the men or have someone share the story of how they overcame their heart wound by personally receiving Jesus Christ as their Savior. Invite any man who is not confident that he has made this important step to see you after the session. Also encourage the men to visit authenticmanhood.com and click the link on the front page that says gospel.

• After viewing this session congratulate the men on completing this volume of 33. Explain that the goal is not to fill in the blanks in our Training Guide but to begin to fill in the blanks in our life by processing the principles of manhood modeled by Jesus.

• Challenge the men to master this material:
  1. By reviewing the notes as well as the articles in their Training Guide
  2. By viewing some or all of the sessions again at authenticmanhood.com
  3. By guiding another man through this series’

• Dismiss the men to their discussion groups.
