Thank you so much for your support of Biblical Illustrator.

Although we recognize that many people enjoy this resource every quarter, we have seen a decline in its use by churches and individuals for several years. As a result, we recently reached the difficult decision to end production of Biblical Illustrator. Winter 2020–21 will be the last issue.

Two years ago, the Biblical Illustrator team began working with the B&H Publishing Holman Bibles team to create a new kind of Bible using selected articles and images from the Biblical Illustrator archive.

The result of their work—the Holy Land Illustrated Study Bible—is now available for purchase. You may find this new Bible will serve the same purpose in your studies as Biblical Illustrator did. Visit csbholylandillustratedbible.com to learn more about this Bible.

We do thank you for your interest in Biblical Illustrator. We apologize for any inconvenience this decision may cause.
