

FINDING GOD FAITHFUL

VIDEO TEACHING NOTES

SESSION 1: Set Apart

1. When God sets you apart, it's an invitation to relationship with Him.
2. Being set apart will always be in keeping with God's grand plan of redemption.
3. When God sets you apart for a task, He shoulders the responsibility for its outcome.
4. Being set apart is initiated by God but carried out through our obedience.
5. Neither your history nor heritage has to be unblemished for God to set you apart.

SESSION 2: The Unlikely Path of Blessing

1. God can create a path of blessing even out of the most depraved circumstances.
2. Certain blessings can only come in the midst of suffering.
3. God's blessing on our lives will spill onto those we think He is least likely to bless.
4. The God of promise is better than the land of promise.

SESSION 3: Faithful in Brokenness

1. Don't let suffering lead to sinning.
2. Don't miss the display of God's kindness in the midst of your suffering
3. Suffering makes us fit for the dreams God has for us.
4. You won't serve God more in the palace (good times) than you're willing to serve Him in the prison (hard times).
5. People who fail us can't prevent God's plan for us.

SESSION 4: Faithful in Abundance

1. During the good years don't forget that the Holy Spirit in you is your most profound gift to the world.
2. During the good years leverage your gift of influence for eternal purposes.
3. During the good years be a storehouse for those who are in the hard years.
4. During the good years don't forget who gave you what you have and who brought you to where you are.

SESSION 5: Extravagant Mercy

1. Whatever mercy we think our sin requires, more is needed and more is always there in Jesus.
2. The mercy Joseph shows to his family as a brother will prove more significant than the mercy he shows to Egypt as a ruler.
3. Sometimes the very thing we resist the most is actually the mercy of God saving our lives.
4. You are meant to be the expression of God's mercy to the world.

SESSION 6: The Process of Forgiveness

1. Stay tender and moveable.
2. Bless those you think you have the right to punish.
3. Forgive in heart and in deed.
4. Be a ruler who rescues.
5. Embrace God's perspective.

SESSION 7: A Redemption Story

1. Don't forget what God wants to redeem.
2. God's redemption always exceeds our expectations.
3. A redemption story is only possible with a Redeemer.

SESSION 8: A Faithful Finish

1. Don't underestimate how many seemingly small choices make up a faithful finish.
2. No one on earth can shatter a dream whose source is in God.
3. A faithful finish has a lot to do with what side of the semicolon you choose to live on.
4. A faithful finish is based on God's promises, not our present circumstances.
