Hard Topic Conversation Starters

Have you ever experienced road rage—even an isolated case—that ended with honking or saying choice words in your car? In retrospect what do you think about your attitude? Why do you think so many people struggle with this kind of anger?

People often fall into inappropriate relationships, especially through social media. What are your personal rules for keeping lust at bay and safely surfing the web? What might lust look and feel like in a relationship developed through social media?

In a culture where cohabitation before marriage has become a social norm and people often engage in multiple marriages, do people still look down on adultery?

If you testify in court or take an oath of office, you will be called on to speak with honesty. Do you think people take seriously the phrase “so help me God?”

What do you do when you pass a panhandler? When someone at the gas station hits you up to fill their tank, too, and you quiz them about where they are going or why they need assistance, does that qualify as going the extra mile?

What’s the nicest thing you ever did for someone who really does not like you, an enemy? How did it make you feel?
