

Sermon on the Mount

BLESSINGS of THE KINGDOM

Metaphors in the Bible

The LORD is my rock,
my fortress, and my deliverer,
my God, my rock where I seek refuge,
my shield and the horn of my salvation,
my stronghold.

The LORD is my shepherd;
I have what I need.

Your word is a lamp for my feet
and a light on my path.

A wise person's instruction is a fountain of life, turning people away from the snares of death.

Yet LORD, you are our Father;
we are the clay, and you are our potter;
we all are the work of your hands.

"No one who comes to me will ever be hungry, and no one who believes in me will ever be thirsty again."

For the word of God is living and effective and sharper than any double-edged sword, penetrating as far as the separation of soul to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

"I, Jesus, have sent my angel to attest these things to you for the churches. I am the root and descendant of David, the bright morning star."
