

What happens when heaven touches earth?

When Jesus came to earth, he chose John as one of His closest friends. This Bible study examines the first three chapters of John's account of this remarkable time in history and the eternal implications for us all. You may think you know about Jesus, but you're going to learn something new. And you just might fall in love with Him all over again.

JOIN US:

Lifeway

lifeway.com/johnbiblestudy