

SCRIPTURE PRAYERS IN THE HEAVEN BIBLE STUDY

BY JENNIFER ROTHSCHILD

Throughout the Heaven Bible study, Jennifer wrote at least one prayer a day based on Scripture. While these prayers were written in the context of this particular study, they are beautiful examples of what it means to pray Scripture. They can be used word-for-word, adapted, or as inspiration for your prayer life in your continuing walk with the Lord.

Session One

DAY ONE

Lord, guide us through Your Spirit to know truth and understand Your holy Word. Amen (John 16:13).

DAY TWO

Thank You, Lord, for our inheritance in Christ and in each other. Teach us today about our glorious unending in Your presence. Amen (Ephesians 1:18).

O God, Your love toward your people is unwavering and astounding. Thank You for delivering our souls from the depths of sorrow, the depths of sin, the depths of self, and the depths of Sheol. We praise You in Jesus's name. Amen (Psalm 86:10-13).

DAY THREE

Thank You, Lord, for Your Spirit who teaches us and guides us into truth. Teach us today for Christ's glory and our good. Amen (John 16:13).

DAY FOUR

Lord, help us, Your children, to get a glimpse of what You have prepared for us. Thank You that You will dwell among us, You will be our God, and we will be Your people in the new earth forever. Amen (Revelation 21:3-5).

Session Two

DAY ONE

Lord, You are high and exalted, inhabiting eternity. Your name is holy. We humble ourselves before You and ask You to revive our spirits and teach us Your truth. Amen (Isaiah 57:15).

DAY TWO

Lord, You promise to give us wisdom if we ask, so we, Your humble servants, ask You for wisdom to rightly divide Your Word of truth. Guide us, Holy Spirit. Amen (James 1:5; 2 Timothy 2:15).

DAY THREE

Lord, instruct us and teach us in the way we should go. Counsel us with Your loving eye on us. Amen (Psalm 32:8).

DAY FOUR

Lord, help us to consider clearly and accurately our priceless privilege of knowing You, and may we see everything else through that lens today. Amen (Philippians 3:8-9).

Session Three

DAY ONE

Jesus, we put our faith in You. Thank You for giving us Your Spirit. Let the river of Living Water flow through us as we study Your Word today. Amen (John 7:37-38).

DAY TWO

Teach us Your ways, Lord, that we may walk in Your truth. Amen (Psalm 86:11).

DAY THREE

Lord, anchor our souls in the hope You give. Make us firm and secure in our High Priest, our Savior Jesus. Teach us truth today. Amen (Hebrews 6:19-20).

DAY FOUR

Lord, thank You for being the resurrection and the life. We do believe in You and are beyond thankful that though we may die, yet shall we live. Set our minds on things above today as we study Your Word. Amen (John 11:25; Colossians 3:2).

Session Four

DAY ONE

Lord, whom have we in Heaven but You? There is nothing on earth we desire that is better than You. Our hearts and flesh may fail, but You are the strength of our lives. Strengthen us today in Your Word. Amen (Psalm 73:25-26).

DAY TWO

Lord, we ask You for wisdom and we trust You will grant us what we need to rightly divide Your Word. Amen (James 1:5-6; 2 Timothy 2:15).

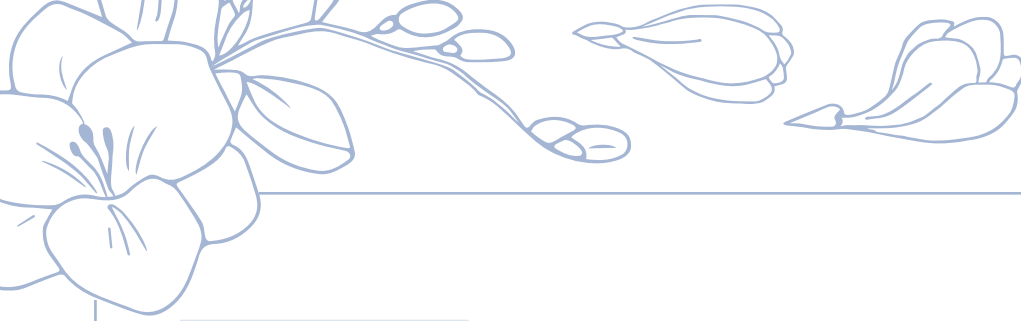

Lord, in Your presence there is fullness of joy. At Your right hand are pleasures forever and ever and ever. Help us to let all the pointers move our hearts toward the real point—Jesus, our risen Lamb. To Him be praise. Amen (Psalm 16:11).

DAY THREE

Lord, You are our Shepherd. We will not fear, even when we walk through dark valleys, because we know You are with us. Comfort us today. Amen (Psalm 23).

DAY FOUR

Lord, search us and know us and open our hearts so we can search and know ourselves as we study Your Word and our hearts today. Amen (Psalm 139:23-24).

Session Five

DAY ONE

Lord, may we be humble and tremble at Your Word today as we study. Amen (Isaiah 66:2).

DAY TWO

Lord, thank You for making death, mourning, crying, and pain no more someday. May the truth of our forever days on the new earth encourage us today as You prepare our hearts for Heaven. Amen (1 Thessalonians 4:17-18).

DAY THREE

Lord, as we meditate upon Your Word today, make us wise. Amen (Psalm 119:99).

Lord, You are worthy of our work here. May Your kingdom come and Your will be done here on earth as it is and will be in Heaven. May we serve You and each other with our whole selves. Amen (Matthew 6:10).

DAY FOUR

Lord, open the eyes of our hearts so we can see clearly the hope You have called us to and the riches we have in the inheritance of each other. Amen (Ephesians 1:18).

Oh, Jesus, Lamb of God, King of Heaven, thank You for making us Yours and giving us Your name. We are honored and humbled to be called Yours (Revelation 22:4).

Session Six

DAY ONE

Make us to know Your ways, Lord. Teach us Your paths. Lead us in Your truth. We want to be learners today. You are the God who saves us and we trust You. Amen (Psalm 25:4-5).

DAY TWO

Lord, may Your Word be our lamp and light as we study. Amen (Psalm 119:105).

DAY THREE

Lord, we want to pay attention to Your Word today, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the Morning Star rises in our hearts. Amen (2 Peter 1:19).

Lord, sanctify us in the truth. Your Word is truth. We trust You with all our hearts. We do not lean on our own understanding. We ask You for wisdom and thank You for giving it to us liberally (John 17:17; Proverbs 3:5; James 1:5).

Lord, at the right time You will bring everything in Heaven and earth together under the authority of Christ (Ephesians 1:10). May we serve You, Your people, all people You love and created, and this current creation according to Your redemptive plan and grace in and through us. Amen.

DAY FOUR

Thank You, God, that not only each of our lives but also each of our deaths are precious to You. Comfort us if we feel anxious or worried. May Your joy be our consolation. Amen (Psalm 72:14; 94:19; 116:15).
