Exploring a GOSPEL-CENTERED World

GÖSPEL PR#JECT.

BARNABAS PIPER: THE GOSPEL AND CURIOSITY

| Barnabas Piper is a Christian writer exploring the connections between ideas, faith, and people. He has contributed to numerous print and online publications, and is the author of several books including The Curious Christian . He is an avid reader of all sorts of books, a learner, and he loves a good story. | | |
|--|--|--|
| How does in-depth study of God's word cultivate humble curiosity? | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| In what ways does the Bible provoke more questions than answer our questions? | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| Why is humble curiosity important in relationships? | | |
| why to numero currossey important in reminorating | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| How does curiosity breathe new life into the spiritual disciplines? | | |

KEVIN JONES: REMOVING THE STAIN OF RACISM FROM THE CHURCH

| Kevin Jones serves as the Associate Dean of Academic Innovation & Professor of Teacher Education at Boyce College. He is the co-editor of Removing the Stain of Racism from the Southern Baptist | | |
|---|--|--|
| Convention, and a contributor in Perspectives on Family Ministry, Second Edition. | | |
| Why is it important that we learn from others in order to remove the stain of racism? | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| Why is it scary to ask God to remove the stain of racism from our own hearts? | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| How can we actively seek to remove the stain of racism in our context? | | |
| They can we actively seek to remove the stain of facism in our context. | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| Why is removing the stain of racism a gospel issue more than it is a social justice issue? | | |
| | | |
| How can we actively seek to remove the stain of racism in our context? Why is removing the stain of racism a gospel issue more than it is a social justice issue? | | |

AARON ARMSTRONG: GOSPEL-CENTERED THEOLOGICAL DISAGREEMENT

| Aaron Armstrong is the brand manager of The Gospel Project, and the author of several books, including Awaiting a Savior and Devotional Doctrine . He is also the screenwriter of the award-winning documentary, Luther: The Life and Legacy of the German Reformer . He and his wife, Emily, have three children: Abigail, Hannah, and Hudson. | | |
|--|--|--|
| What are practical ways to discuss doctrine in humility? | | |
| | | |
| What are issues that cause us to properly divide over doctrine? | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| Why is it important that when we disagree over doctrine, we do so with compassion? | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| | | |

How does God receive glory when we delight in doctrine?

MATT CAPPS: THE GOSPEL AND BEAUTY

| Matt Capps serves as the Senior Pastor of Fairview Baptist Church in Apex, NC. He is a contributor |
|--|
| to the recently released 15 Things Seminary Couldn't Teach Me, edited by C. Jeffrey Robinson Sr. and |
| Collin Hansen, and has written for The Gospel Coalition, For the Church , and The Gospel Project. |
| Matt and his wife, Laura, have three children, Solomon, Ruby, and Abby. |

| If beauty is accessible to all of humanity, what is our ta | isk to understand and |
|--|-----------------------|
| communicate the purpose of beauty in a distinctively (| Christian way? |

How can beauty be seen as a gift from God to all people?

In what ways is Jesus Christ the apex of all beauty?

How should a biblical understanding of beauty motivate our appreciation of beauty and our call to cultivate the arts within the church?