Reflection Questions

Copy and paste the text below into an email that includes as an attachment the video “5 Needed Factors for Leading a Bible Study” and the Adults Preview Guide. Include in the email a reminder about the training specifics, including location and time.

Use these questions to guide your review of the information found in the video “5 Needed Factors for Leading a Bible Study” and The Gospel Project for Adults Preview Guide.

- Why are active study skills, normally used for an English or History class, important for Bible studies?
- Why is context important in studying the Bible?
- As described in the article, what makes an unholy codependency detrimental to the lives of both the group and the leader? What steps can you take to avoid this codependency?
- How can you, as a leader, help people in your group feel welcomed and at ease in a Bible study group?
- Briefly describe the purpose of the Personal Study Guide, Leader Guide, and Commentary.
- How do you feel about an active-learning model as oppose to a straight lecture-discussion model?
- After reviewing the Preview Guide, what excites you?
- After reviewing the Preview Guide, what questions do you have?
