Ellie Holcomb

"This record is about a deeper sorrow and a higher hope," says Ellie Holcomb of her latest album, CANYON, the third full-length solo project from the singer/songwriter. For eight years, she recorded and toured full-time with her husband's band, Drew Holcomb and The Neighbors, before stepping off the road when her first child was born. Her solo debut, As Sure As The Sun (2014), landed her a Top 10 hit at Christian radio with "The Broken Beautiful" and a GMA Dove Award for "New Artist of the Year." Her critically-acclaimed sophomore LP, Red Sea Road, followed in 2017. In subsequent years, Holcomb has released two children's books—each with a companion EP of original music written specifically for kids, the second of which earned her a Dove Award for "Children's Album of the Year" in 2020. She's consistently writing, touring and performing while raising three kids with Drew in her hometown of Nashville, Tennessee.

BK Bridge

BK Bridge represents a divine global collaboration. With members hailing from countries such as Jamaica, Russia, Honduras, and Japan, these singers' hearts were knit together while serving alongside one another as part of the Grammy Award-winning Brooklyn Tabernacle Choir in New York City. One by one, God called each individual away from New York into different avenues of ministry. But their bond and passion for Spirit-filled worship remained. Now, under the direction of Dove Award-winning composer Bradley Knight, BK Bridge has been formed for such a time as this, to lift up the name of Jesus. This diverse group of worship leaders have one common goal: Bridge the nations. Bridge the generations. Bridge the Church.
