

Courtney Doctor

Courtney Doctor is an author, Bible teacher, frequent conference and retreat speaker, and periodic blogger. She received an MDiv from Covenant Theological Seminary in 2013 and is the author of From Garden to Glory: A Bible Study on the Bible's Story (2016); Steadfast: A Devotional Bible Study on the Book of James (2019); and In View of God's Mercies: The Gift of the Gospel in Romans (coming soon). She currently serves as the Coordinator of Women's Initiatives for The Gospel Coalition. Her greatest desire in all of this is to be able to faithfully study, apply, and teach the word of God and help others to do the same. God has blessed Courtney and her husband, Craig, with four wonderful children, as well as two amazing daughters-in-law, and five sweet grandchildren.

Derwin Gray

Derwin L. Gray is the Confounding and Lead Pastor of Transformation Church, a multiethnic, multigenerational, mission-shaped community in Indian Land, South Carolina, just south of Charlotte, North Carolina. Gray met his wife, Vicki, at Brigham Young University (BYU). They have been married since 1992 and have two adult children. After graduating from BYU, he played professional football in the National Football League for five years with the Indianapolis Colts (1993-1997) and one year with the Carolina Panthers (1998). In 2008, Gray graduated from Southern Evangelical Seminary magna cum laude, with a Master of Divinity with a concentration in Apologetics, where he was mentored by renowned theologian and philosopher Dr. Norman Geisler. In 2018, Gray received his Doctor of Ministry in the New Testament in Context at Northern Seminary under Dr. Scot McKnight. In 2015, he was awarded an honorary doctorate from Southern Evangelical Seminary. Gray is the best-selling author of The Good Life: What Jesus Teaches About Finding True Happiness, How To Heal The Racial Divide: What the Bible, Says, And The First Christians Knew, About Racial Reconciliation, Building a Multiethnic Church: A Gospel Vision of Love, Grace, and Reconciliation in a Divided World, Limitless Life: You Are More Than Your Past When God Holds Your Future, and God, Do You Hear Me? Discovering The Prayer God Always Answers.

Jen Wilkin

Jen Wilkin is an author and Bible teacher from Dallas, Texas. She has organized and led studies for women in home, church, and parachurch contexts. An advocate for Bible literacy, her passion is to see others become articulate and committed followers of Christ, with a clear understanding of why they believe what they believe, grounded in the Word of God. She is the author of numerous Bible studies and books, including God of Covenant, God of Creation, 1 Peter, Sermon on the Mount, Women of the Word, None Like Him, In His Image, and the newly-released God of Freedom.

Jennifer Rothschild

Jennifer became blind when she was fifteen years old and has experienced firsthand how God's companionship gives her comfort and confidence in every season of her life. Now more than thirty years later, as an author and speaker, she boldly and compassionately teaches women how to trust God in every season too. Known for her substance, signature wit, and down-to-earth style, Jennifer weaves together relatable stories with biblical truths to help women know and live for Christ. She has shared her practical and inspiring messages to audiences across the country and through media outlets including The Dr. Phil Show, Good Morning America, Life Today, and The Billy Graham Television Special. She is the featured teacher and founder of Fresh Grounded Faith Conferences and publisher of the popular online resource for women in ministry called WomensMinistry.net.

Whitney Capps

Whitney Capps is a national speaker for Proverbs 31 Ministries and a writer for the free Bible app, First 5, reaching more than one million people daily. As a Bible study geek, Whitney's delight is to dig into God's Word for profound, yet practical, truth. A communicator at heart, Whitney comes alive sharing those truths with any gal who will give her even a few minutes. Before her writing and speaking gig, Whitney served as a talent acquisitions professional for the corporate office of Chick-fil-A. Additionally, Whitney served her community as her local Bible Study Fellowship teaching leader for several years. Whitney has also written a book entitled Sick of Me: From Transparency to Transformation. A girly-girl living among all boys, Whitney and her husband, Chad, are raising their four sons, Cooper, Dylan, Ryder, and Tate, just outside of Atlanta, Georgia. Her house is wild, loud, and littered with Legos®. Whitney is addicted to shoes, Coke Zero®, queso, and guac. To hear more from Whitney, visit her website at WhitneyCapps.com.

Brooke Volland and Long Hollow Worship

Brooke Volland is a worship leader who has been serving the local church for 15 years as part of Long Hollow Worship. Brooke leads with a passion for directing the attention and affection of God's people toward His heart, longing to create an atmosphere where Christ can romance His Bride. This desire comes from the overflow of what God has done in Brooke's life, redeeming years of recording and touring in the country music industry that nearly destroyed her life and family. The authenticity and humility of Brooke's leadership is a grateful response to God radically restoring her marriage and then transforming the use of her musical gifts for His glory.

The calling on Brooke's life as a worship leader began at Long Hollow Church, where she began attending and serving after her exit from country music. Today, Long Hollow Worship offers leadership and original worship material as a ministry of Long Hollow Church in Hendersonville, TN where Robby Gallaty leads as Senior Pastor.

Brooke also leads and records worship as part of Brooke and Boggs and Wildfire Worship Collective.
