

StreamOne[®] Marketplace Syndication

Unlock new revenue opportunities and streamline procurement

StreamOne® Marketplace Syndication simplifies procurement processes for Hyperscaler catalogs, offering partners a powerful platform to manage and expand their software and services portfolio. Quickly access new software-as-a-service (SaaS) products and updates, benefit from exclusive discounts, optimize lifecycle management, and deliver a unified experience for your customers - all without additional operational costs.

Thousands of products at your fingertips

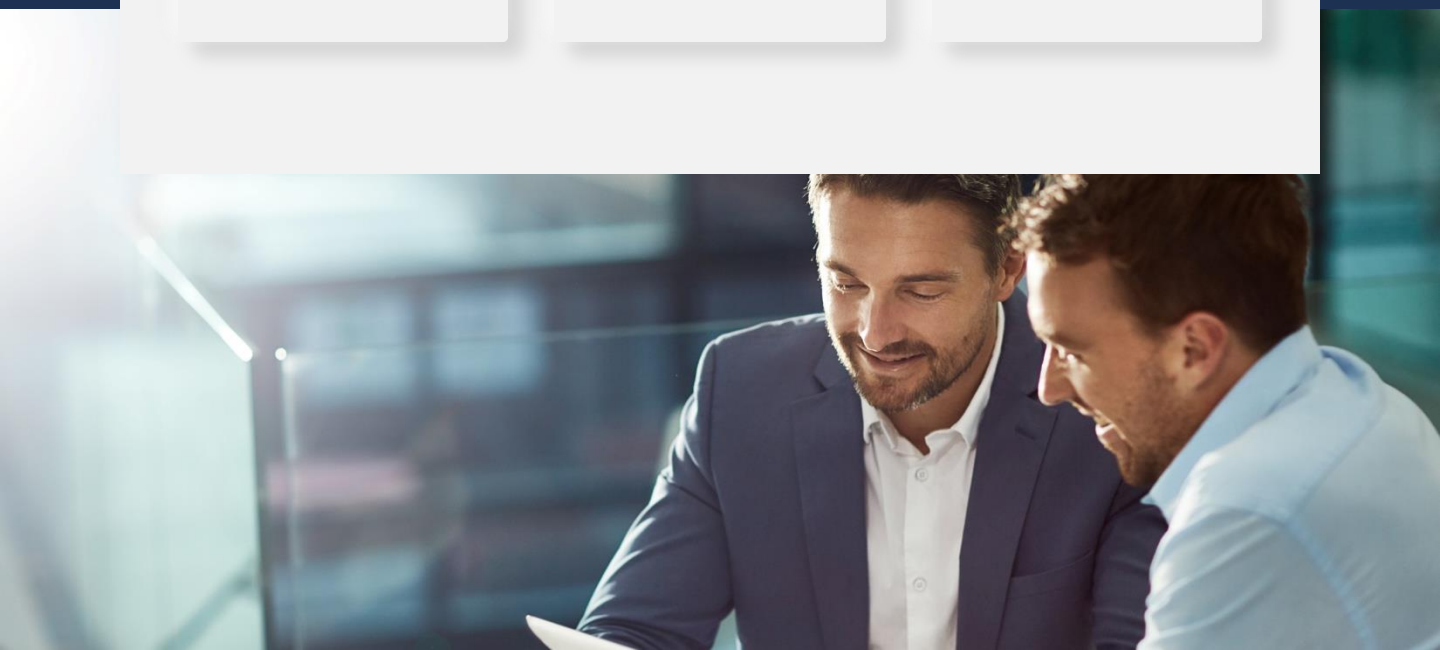

Endless revenue opportunities

Add syndicated products to your marketplace with a click

StreamOne® lifecycle management, reporting and billing capabilities including

Expanded Software Catalogs

Purchase Cloud Marketplace listings using your Cloud Provider account and quickly launch pre-configured software with just a few clicks. StreamOne® manages billing and payments.

Automatic notifications for hyperscale product updates

Stay informed with real-time notifications whenever a Hyperscaler adds or updates products. These updates will automatically appear in the product tab, enabling you to easily add them to your syndicated product list with just a click.

Lifecycle management

Manage the entire product lifecycle, for your entire ecosystem of products, all within the same platform. StreamOne® streamlines lifecycle management by integrating and standardizing vendor systems into a single, consistent view. This standardized experience with all product and services saves partners time and energy, enabling them to efficiently manage their cloud resources, reduce operational complexity, and focus on driving business growth instead of navigating disparate systems.

Integrated reporting and billing

Take advantage of comprehensive reporting and billing capabilities, giving you a complete view of transactions and product usage. This enables you to maintain transparency with customers and optimize revenue management.

Expanding your product portfolio becomes effortless with marketplace syndication. By adding new Hyperscaler products, you can open new revenue streams without incurring additional operating expenses or the need for complex systems.
